Yumi Yamaguchi

My name is Yumi Yamaguchi. As a travel writer, I have traveled all over the world. I have been to Africa, the South Pacific, Asia, and many rare places that most people don't go to, and I have had many adventurous experiences.

I have a lot of videos that I have taken in this way. The reason I started this channel is that I want to share more of them with you.

When I visited an island resort in Myanmar the other day, I showed the owner some of my videos and he was a little surprised. Yumi, why don't you be a YouTuber? His words encouraged me.

Would you like to travel around the world with me?
